THIS DOCUMENT CONTAINS INFORMATION AFFECTING THE NATIONAL DEFENSE OF THE UNITED STATES, WITHIN THE MEANING OF TITLE 18, SECTIONS 793 AND 794, OF THE U.S. CODE, AS AMENDED. ITS TRANSMISSION OR REVELATION OF ITS CONTENTS TO OR RECEIPT BY AN UNAUTHORIZED PERSON IS PROHIBITED BY LAW. THE REPRODUCTION OF THIS FORM IS PROHIBITED.

THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

1. There is a Russian division command in the market place, in a three-storied building which was completed in 1938. It is about 100 meters from the Hungarian corps command headquarters. The building is about 98 meters long.
2. A Russian armored regiment is in the former cavalry barracks at the corner of Lovölae Street and the "Street of the Red Army." The number of tanks is over 120.
3. The Hotel Arpad has been taken over as a Russian officers' quarters. It has about 100 rooms. Many of the officers of the division command live at this place.
4. The Hungarian corps command is in Zichy Park. The building it occupies has three stories and about 85 meters long.
5. Two Hungarian infantry battalions are in the infantry barracks at the corner of the Varkörut and the Street of the Red Army. The building was formerly a school for young girls and a cloister of English nuns. The complex consists of two three-storied buildings, with 100 meters frontage on the street. At the most each could hold 450 men.
6. There is a Hungarian motorized battalion in the barracks at the corner of Malom and Sar Streets. This barracks consists of a single building, which could hold 600 men if necessary.
